

Mark Paxton Joins The Prosperity Consulting Group

BALTIMORE - Oct. 29, 2018 -- The Prosperity Consulting Group, LLC, an independent wealth management company serving the Mid-Atlantic Region, is pleased to announce that Mark Paxton, has become a Financial Advisor of the firm.

Mark has over 20 years of experience assisting small to mid-size business owners in establishing and monitoring company sponsored 401(k) plans, while also assisting individual employees as they plan for their future and their family's future. Mark develops 401(k) plans that offer low-cost fund options and a transparent fee structure to save both the company and its employees money. He continues to support the plan by conducting regular plan reviews and ensures plan compliance. He assists in the coordination of employee enrollment meetings and provides educational materials and seminars to his 401(k) clients and their employees.

“Mark is a great addition to our 401(k) team. He will provide business clients with robust and cost-effective 401(k) planning. We are excited to have him!” says Donald N. Hoffman, MS, CPA, President of The Prosperity Consulting Group, LLC.

The Prosperity Consulting Group, LLC, is a Wealth Management Company dedicated to providing objective financial planning services and investment advice to businesses, individuals, families and institutions.
